Inspire bonsai master's works

From an early age “Tokoname Bonsai Pots” growing up looking at the making of a pot of his father SEIZAN representing the industry.

SEIZAN is the leading expert who has worked hard to reproduce “KOWATARI”, and as a successor himself enters the world of pot making.

It is the mission to inherit the will of the predecessor and to create a pots compatible with the aesthetics of the bonsai masters and to work without doing any unnecessary work even though it has acquired advanced skills.

The representative work is a White glazed pot that has been studying for many years since I was young.

It is highly appreciated by bonsai masters easy to match deciuous bonsai enthusiasts as a pots ages it shows wear develops character and flavor. In addition, “Nanban” does not spoil the harmony between the trunk of “Bunjin” and the space, directing the atmosphere that “pots” and “tree” withered together.

Especially the unglazed pots uses Purple Clay developed in response to the desire of enthusiasts, Grey Clay, using Shohaku Bonsai evaluation is high as a pots that complements the heavy feeling of a wide range from small items to large bonsai and make it with maximum consideration to clay color / surface.
